

Money for training for individual employers

If you employ your own care and support using a personal budget from health or social care, or your own money, you can apply for funding from Skills for Care to train you and your personal assistants (PAs).

It can pay for training courses, expenses to get to and from the training and for a replacement PA. Here are some of the courses that you can apply for funding for.

Being a good employer

Assisting and moving

Communication skills

Condition specific training

First aid

Food and hygiene

British sign language

Health and social care qualifications

How to apply?

It's given out on a first come, first served basis so don't miss out! Applications close on 28 February 2020. Visit www.skillsforcare.org.uk/iefunding and apply now.
